PROGRESS REPORT FORM

Island and archipelagic heritage studies MOOCs

I. Abstract

Contingent to the results and outcomes of the previous project on cultural mapping, inventory of heritage resources, storytelling and storybook content creation, a holistic and transdisciplinal Massive Open Online Course. The Gasan and Santa Cruz has already produced respective cultural profiles coupled with the batches of Graduate diploma in Cultural education and the pioneering Bachelor of Culture and Arts Education along with the internationalisation efforts with BSTM sections of graduating students can sustain the gains through developing MOOCs on heritage studies for the island and archipelagic living heritage. This project would hopefully address the recovery and sustainability plan during and after the covid19 pandemic. With recent development from Palawan State University about Ugat (Anthropological Association of the Philippines) possible collaboration with a regional integral assessment on of on-going, planned and completed cultural mapping projects in Marinduque, Mindoro, Romblon and Palawan, an amalgamated island and archipelagic studies could be crafted based on Philippine Studies and Palawan Studies of PSU. Ugat (Ugnayan Pang-Aghamtao, Inc) is going to organize a national conference during the last quarter of the year with the preparation during the summer and 1st semester for the piloting of the island and archipelagic studies in the region.

Island Innovation Ambassador Program 2023

To whom it may concern,

In 2020, Island Innovation introduced the Ambassadors program. This network comprises a cohort of selected islanders from across the globe and is geared towards empowering islands by communicating and developing creative solutions to shared challenges.

It is with great enthusiasm that we accept Randy T. Nobleza as an Island Innovation Ambassador for 2023. This program aims to integrate and combine networking, sustainability, diversity, and capacity-building. However, only ambassadors who are strongly committed to creating more sustainable island communities and participating in our activities and meetings are accepted into the program. The Island Innovation Ambassadors are passionate about creating opportunities to bring members of their community together to create positive, tangible changes. We have no doubts that Randy will be an excellent representative of Marinduque, Philippines for this year.

The Ambassador will serve as a bridge between their communities, and connect distant islands by creating compelling conversations about complex issues. This leads to regional collaboration with fellow Ambassadors, and a corresponding broader perspective in relation to solving these issues. An important element of this collaboration will be done through promoting Island Innovation events throughout the year via social media channels and both virtual and physical hubs. Ambassadors will represent their island communities across the globe, including Europe, North and South America, Africa, Asia, the Pacific and the Caribbean. The ambassador network allows for global exchange in expertise without geographic limitations.

The Ambassador will collaborate towards creating a successful Island Finance Forum, Virtual Island Summit, Island Space at COP28 and other signature events. In the face of emerging worldwide crises such as climate change and the COVID-19 pandemic, the spirit at the heart of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals is more important than ever.

James Ellsmoor, Island Innovation founder, highlights the outcomes of the initiative: "We anticipate a larger global representation of Islanders that were selected this year to be a part of the Ambassador program. We know that each Island Innovation Ambassador can create that social bridge to share issues and provide solutions from their country to the rest of the world. At Island Innovation, we are thrilled to have Randy representing Marinduque and look forward to supporting them in their work."

Matagumpay na naibahagi ni Dr. Randy Nobleza, Ambassador ng Island Innovation ang kaniyang saliksik tungkol sa Araling Pang-isla at Pangkapuluan sa Pandaigdigang Webinar-Worksyap noong Pebrero 25 sa ika-37 taon ng EDSA Revolution.

Nagkaroon ng pagkakataon ang Island Innovation Ambassador itampok ang kaniyang isla ng Marinduque sa mga guro, mag-aaral at mananaliksik ng Araling Panlipunan. Hinati ni Dr Nobleza ang kaniyang paglalahad sa slang bahagi: para sa abstrak at panimula ay nagpanood siya ng MSC Song at bahagi ng ritwal ng tubong.

Samantala, ang materyal at metodo naman ay ipinakita ang process ng paghahabi ng nito na katumbas ng udang modyul na binubuo ng mga nilalaman ng mag-aaral ng Bachelor in Culture, Arts Education at Graduate Diploma in Cultural Education.

Bilang pagpapatuloy para sa substansiyal na bahagi, ang resulta at diskusyon pinalabas ang kultural na dokumentasyon na “Ipinamalay na” tungkol sa ugnayan ng isla ng Marinduque at Mindoro sa rehiyong Mimaropa.

Katapat nito ang modul 2 na halaw naman sa mga awtput ng BA Communication at English Language Studies kagaya ng Vlogs, video ethnography at storytelling/ storybook packages.

Bago ang konklusyon, reperensiya at pagpapasalamat ay pinasilip ang teaser ng 44 Ugat Conference tungkol sa Kapuluan at mga bahagi ng HIbla Local Filipina 3 kung saan kukuhain ang modyul 3 tungkol sa sayaw, musika, dula, pagguhit at pagkukwento.

Sa pagbubuod, binahagi sa saliksik ang mga layunin ng Massive Online and Open Course (MOOCs) tungkol Araling Pang-isla at Pangkapuluan. Pinaliwanag ang konteksto mula 2016, sa pagsisimula ng Marinduque State College (MSC) Culture and Arts kasama ang heritage education at gawain ng Book Nook Marinduque para sa Hibla Local Filipina 3 kagaya ng drawing, dance, music, retelling at theater arts.

Ang Pandaigdigang Webinar-Worksyap ay inorganisa ng Samahan ng mga Guro sa Intelektuwalisasyon ng Filipino (SAGIF). Ang nabanggit na webinar-worksyap sinagawa noong Pebrero 24 hanggang 26 ay may teaming “Pagpopook ng Kasaysayan sa Hamon ng Teknolohiya at Globalisasyon.”

Magalang na hinihiling ng Komisyon sa Wikang Filipino sa inyong tanggapan na maidispley nang libre sa TV/LED monitor, website, at Facebook page ng inyong ahensiya ang digital poster ng Buwan ng Panitikan 2023.

Tema
"Kultura ng Pagkakaisa: Pagsisiyasat ng Pagkakaisa sa pamamagitan ng Panitikan"

Ang Proklamasyon Bilang 968 na nilagdaan noong 10 Pebrero 2015 ay nagdedeklara sa buwan ng Abril bilang Buwan ng Panitikang Pambansa o National Literature Month na nagbibigay halaga sa panitikan na nakalimbag sa iba't ibang wika sa Pilipinas na itinuturing na pamanang pangkultura sa mga susunod na henerasyon.

Pangungunahan ng Pambansang Komisyon para sa Kultura at mga Sining (NCCA), Komisyon sa Wikang Filipino (KWF), at Pambansang Lupon sa Pagpapaunlad ng Aklat (NBDB) ang pagdiriwang ng Buwan ng Panitikan ng Pilipinas.

Layunin ng kahilingang ito na maipalaganap sa higit na nakararaming mamamayan ang kamalayan hinggil sa pagdiriwang. Naniniwala kaming malaki ang maitutulong ng inyong opisina para sa layuning ito.

Makikipag-ugnayan po kamí sa inyong opisina sa mga darating na araw upang malaman ang inyong tugon. BOAC, Marinduque (PIA) -- Magkaagapay na pinangunahan ng Komisyon ng Wikang Filipino at Sentro ng Wika at Kultura (SWK) sa buong kapuluan ang pagdiriwang ng Buwan ng Panitikan na may temang 'Kultura ng Pagkakaisa: Pagsisiyasat ng Pagkakaisa sa pamamagitan ng Panitikan'.

Aktibong nakiisa sa naturang gawain ang SWK-Marinduque State College (MSC) sa pangunguna ng kasalukuyang direktor na si Dr. Ernesto Largado kung saan ay lumahok din ang mga mag-aaral mula sa iba't ibang pamantasan, mga awtor, mananaliksik at miyembro ng media.

Sa webinar series, binigyang diin ni Atty. Marites Barrios-Taran, Director General ng KWF, ang kahalagahan ng pagbabasa lalo na ng mga kabataan. Hinikayat din ng direktor na gawing huwaran si Francisco Balagtas, isang tanyag na Pilipinong makata at himukin ang mga kabataan na magbasa ng iba't ibang uri ng panitikan at mahalin ang wikang Filipino.

"Ang pagbabasa ay isang oportunidad upang matuto, maaliw, maglakbay, sumuri, at marami pang uri ng makabuluhang karanasan. Higit sa lahat, magbasa upang umunawa, para maging bukas ang isip sa pagbabago, sa opinyon at pananaw ng iba upang bigyang puwang ang pagkakaisa," ani Taran.

Samantala, bilang pakikiisa sa selebrasyon ng Buwan ng Panitikan, nakatakdang isagawa ng SWK-MSC ang 'Lunsad-Zine' ni May Morales Dolis, isang guro ng Agham Panlipunan gayundin, inaasahang itatanghal ang kwentong 'Ayon kay Kid Talaba' na inisyatiba ng Union Locale, Marinduque Council for Environmental Concern (MACEC) at Book Nook Marinduque.

Sa bisa ng Proklamasyon Blg. 968 na nilagdaan ni dating Pangulong Benigno Simeon Aquino noong 2015, idineklara ang Abril bilang Buwan ng Panitikan o National Literature Month. (RAMJR/AMKDA/PIA-MIMAROPA)

Prior to the 7th Abaca festival, Catanduanes made it as host of the Philippine Association for the Study of Culture, History and Religion (PASCHR) as its lone State University to cement its bid for internationalization. Catanduanes State University (CatSU) President Dr. Patrick Alain Azanza, a sociologist himself, underscored the significance of knowing ones culture and society with a variety of perspective from May 18 to 20.

CatSU convened more than 50 researchers from higher education institution from here and abroad to make a better understanding of the Happy Island, the Philippine archipelago and beyond. Known as the Abaca capital of the country, Catanduanes weaves culture, history and religion. As Hon. Samuel Laynes who was represented by his vice mayor emphasized each town especially that of Virac as the province's capital the various contribution to culture and industry. Likewise, Hon. Joseph Cua was represented by a provincial board member, the good governor remarked the partnership of CatSU and local government to make the Catanduanon happier.

On the part of PASCHR, put up an impressive roster of local and international scholars such as Dr. Sophana Schrichampa of Mahidol University, Thailand; Dr. Randy Nobleza, Island Innovation Ambassador of Marinduque; Dr. Vibha Agniihotri from University of Lucknow of India; the eminent historian, Dr. Danilo Gerona of Partido State University and from CatSU's own Dr. Ramon Felipe Sarmiento.

There were at least 4 parallel sessions on biographies of localities, bodies as sites of meaning-making, crises make history; language and media representation; performing local identity during the first day. In addition, there was a parallel session about ethnolinguistics; Filipino religiosity; religion and contemporary imperatives and meaning-making through the passages of everyday life on the second day. Moreover, there would be a PASCHR business meeting to discuss the next conference for the 10th year of the organization from its inaugural conference in 2014. The Catanduanes Provincial and Virac Municipal Government would be hosting a fellowship night for the in-person participants. On the last day, there are also parallel sessions on literature as social practices of meaning-making; literature and contexts; ethnobotany and imperatives of very recent history then a closing program would ensue.

From Virac airport to the Catanduanes State University is just a stone's throw away, we were fetched by the CatSU vice president himself Dr. Ramon Felipe Sarmiento who is also the co-convenor of this year's Philippine Association for the Study of Culture, History and Religion (PASCHR).

Without previous meet-up, just an email and an SMS the CatSU Sentro ng Wika at Kultura welcomed us to his humble abode and buzzing office with open arms and all smiles. It was with this recommendation we visit the coral stone church in Bato town and the Catanduanes museum at the auspices of the old capitol building.

Prior to the celebration of the 7th Abaca festival, we had a glimpse of island life with a visit to the fertility island at Bagamanoc and along the way the Panganiban campus of CatSU. We also spend an afternoon at San Miguel the location of the other port apart from Virac the gateway to Albay and Bicol mainland.

Truly, Catanduanes is a happy island though rocked by natural calamities every so often it has risen time and again stronger with its people, the Catanduangon keeping their faith intact and their hearts happy and fulfilled.

Boac, Marinduque – The future Marinduque State University is proud to have yet another edition of the College of Arts and Social Sciences (CASS) Research Colloquium this year. With the theme, “Research Landscapes in the Arts and Social Sciences in the New Normal,” the lone state college in the island province would be once again convening faculty, students and researchers.

The main resource person, Dr. Crina Tañongon from the College of Communication, Art and Design of the University of the Philippines Cebu. Meanwhile, to peruse the student researchers’ labor of the mind are seasoned researchers themselves, Dr. Susan Pineda, Dr. Analyn Decena and Ms. Desiree Ann Sto Domingo. To complete the esteemed panel, they would be joined by Mam Raquel Umbalin from La Verdad Christian College and MSC College of Education’s own Sir Joshua Pagulayan.

The CASS research and extension coordinator Mam Christina Atienza, considered the event as a continuation of the previous reiterations of the School of Arts and Sciences, School of Liberal Arts, College of Education, Arts and Social Sciences. She enjoined, “Everyone po is invited to join po to witness po the presentations from 3 programs.”

In addition, after the colloquium by May 12, the MSC Litera Club met with Rex Nepomuceno, Riza Magno and Randy Nobleza to discuss a possible exhibit and publication by August. Coinciding with the heritage month, celebrate islands week and ocean decade, CASS faculty currently on-sabbatical Dr. Nobleza, Island Innovation ambassador and Academic council representative had an info session about Island Innovation Academic Council and in support of Celebrate Islands week 10 th edition.

To sustain the celebrate islands week, in time for the CASS week, the Arts and Social Sciences Students Organization (ARTSSO) also organized a socialization day dubbed as CASS day on May 9 to express solidarity and camaraderie among the communication, social work and English respective societies and students.

Marinduque hosts regional science and technology week amidst Celebrate Islands Festival

By The Good News Pilipinas Team - May 16, 2023

The 3-day event showcases Science and Technology for a Sustainable Future. MSC Randy Nobleza photo.

Marinduque is hosting the innovative Mimaropa Regional Science and Technology Week (RSTW) from May 16 to 18, 2023. This event, organized by the Department of Science and Technology (DOST), coincides with the annual Celebrate Islands Week.

Taking place at the Marinduque State College (MSC) gymnasium, this year's RSTW theme is "Agham at Teknolohiya: Kabalikat sa Maunlad at Matatag na Kinabukasan."

A Deep Dive into Science, Technology, and the Blue Economy

The RSTW kicks off with a press conference featuring local media, student journalists, and Science and Technology (S&T) enthusiasts. The first day will encompass a forum on the Blue Economy, with a specific focus on Abalone and Sea Cucumber Hatchery, and Grow-out for freshwater species.

Additionally, participants will attend a forum on Itik Pinas Technology. As a treat for RSTW guests, there will be a project visit and a cultural night to round off the opening day.

Harnessing the Power of Local Resources

Day two will proceed with a focus on local resources. Forums will explore Tissue Cultured Dwarf Banana technology and S&T trends and opportunities for Makapuno and Coconut with embryo-cultured makapuno. The day's highlight will be a workshop on the Halal Assurance System and Manual, aimed at Marinduque's MSMEs.

E-Mobility, Waste Management, and Awards Galore

The final day of RSTW will delve into e-mobility and waste management technologies with advanced manufacturing. The day will culminate in an awarding ceremony for TechnoBYAHE for Technopreneurship, Best Technopreneur awards, Smart Community Award, and the Mimaropa Innovation Award.

Celebrate Islands Week

Celebrate Islands Week is an annual event co-organized by Conservatoire du littoral and like-minded non-governmental and civil society organizations since 2014. It encourages initiatives for and by small islands, with a festive week running from May 10 to 17. The celebration also includes a video contest, which takes in 120-second project proposals and undergoes a public voting and jury evaluation process.

How to Vote for Marinduque Entry for Celebrate Islands

In the heart of the Celebrate Islands Week contest, Marinduque State College (MSC) has submitted an inspiring project titled "Marinduque Creative Island Innovation" under the Sustainable Agriculture/Aquaculture category. The project, presented by Randy Nobleza, emerges from the heart-shaped island of Marinduque, acknowledged as the geodetic center of the Philippine archipelago. The submission beautifully encapsulates the history of Marinduque's struggle with environmental challenges and its triumphant journey toward sustainable development. It underlines the island's resilience in combating the adverse effects of mining and environmental disasters, such as the Boac River tragedy 27 years ago and the recent oil spill threatening the Verde Island Passage.

Nobleza, in his powerful presentation, emphasizes Marinduque's commitment to environmental justice and sustainability, marking a 50-year moratorium that halted the operations of a transnational mining company. Despite the ongoing challenges, including the pandemic and its socio-cultural, economic, and health implications, the island has been striving to transition into a 'next normal' phase. Nobleza expresses his hope for Marinduque, envisioning it as an "exemplary case of grassroots mobilization, creative resistance, and self-sustaining island for the whole archipelago" in the next half-century. He stresses the urgency of declaring a climate emergency, underscoring the need for immediate action to protect and rejuvenate the islands, thus securing their capacity to sustain life in the long run. With a spirit of innovation and a heart full of care for the environment, MSC's entry truly embodies the essence of the Celebrate Islands contest.

Vote for Marinduque on Celebrate Islands by going to this link and clicking the button for JE VOTE POUR CE PROJET!

Marinduque's hosting of the RSTW during Celebrate Islands Week highlights its commitment to innovation, sustainability, and island community resilience. It's a unique opportunity for the island to take center stage and showcase its potential for science and technology within the region and beyond.

Marinduque groups are involved in coral reef restoration to improve its marine resources. Marinduque State College has also innovated by producing 95% alcohol from coconut and mangrove sap.

The Marinduque Island Ambassador, Dr. Randy Nobleza have submitted an entry for the 10th edition of Celebrate Islands that is going to take place by May 10 to 17. Celebrate Islands is an annual event co-organized by Conservatoire du littoral and the like-minded non-governmental and civil society organizations since 2014.

According to the website of Celebrate Islands, the objective is to promote and share initiatives towards the preservation of the ecological and cultural specificities of small islands around the world. In addition, it also aims to celebrate island ecosystems and the actors who act for their preservation. The main goal since its inception is to initiate a process for the recognition of an islands international day.

Marinduque's entry have the context of the recent oil spill in Mindoro affecting the Verde Island Passage and the more remote disaster from the mine tailings 27 years ago. The Island Ambassador from Marinduque is mainstreaming orange economy and nature's rights as viable alternatives for mining dubbed nowadays as "green metals."

Given a chance to get a grant, it would be for the promotion of creative means of agriculture and aquaculture which Marinduque State College has a banner program for fresh water shrimp and native pig. There would be an online voting between May 10 to 16 and a closing ceremonies along with the announcement of winners by May 17.

The Celebrate Islands took in applications for the 120 second project proposals in video format between February 21 to May 3. Then the opening of public voting and jury evaluation for the video contest is from May 10 until the 16th. Meanwhile, the diffusion of initiatives carried out by and for small islands and the festive week of Celebrate Islands is from May 10 to 17.

Marinduque's 120 second video conservation proposal have garnered support from t Council for Environmental Concerns (MACEC), the Provincial Science and Technology Office and Union Locale, the advocacy group for creative industries. The province is also hosting the Regional Science and Technology Week (RSTW) organized by the Department of Science and Technology (DOST) where its secretary and regional director is expected to grace the occasion on May 16 to 18 at the Marinduque State College as host institution.

VIRAC, Catanduanes (PIA)- The 9th Philippine Association for the Study of Culture, History, and Religion (PASCHR) International Conference aimed at fostering discussion on culture, history and religion, was held on May 18 at the Catanduanes State University (CatSU), here.

In his welcome remarks, CatSU President Dr. Patrick Alain T. Azanza expressed his gratitude to PASCHR for selecting CatSU as the conference's partner and venue. He said that as a sociologist, a conference that delves into culture, religion, and history is very significant as it plays a crucial role in disseminating and preserving knowledge.

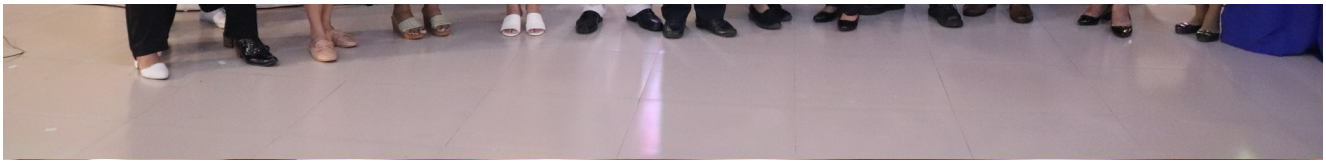
The university president also stressed that the activity is beneficial for the younger generation as it will allow them to know their roots and the historical foundations that have shaped society today.

Dr. Amarjiva Lochan, President of the South and Southeast Asian Association of the Study of Culture and Religion, pledged assistance in publishing the conference research papers in their journal during his message.

The morning session was highlighted by a brief opening program where Dr. Esmeralda F. Sanchez, President Emeritus of PASCHR, introduced the keynote speaker, Dr. Sophana Schrichampa from Mahidol University in Thailand. It was then succeeded by the discussion of the first Plenary Speaker, Dr. Randy T. Nobleza from Marinduque State College.

The afternoon session featured parallel sessions where 52 paper presenters representing 31 universities and colleges from across the globe, presented their respective research works.

The conference, centered around the theme "Narratives and Practices of meaning-making: histories, cultures and religions in the Philippines in their Indo-Pacific contexts."



PIA5/Catanduanes: A total of one hundred (100) onsite and online participants joined the 9th Philippine Association for the Study of Culture, History, and Religion (PASCHR) International Conference was held on May 18, 2023, at Catanduanes State University (CatSU).

A total of 100 onsite and online participants joined the event. Also present were Hon. Arlynn H. Arcilla, Vice Mayor of Virac, and Hon. Joselito Alberto, Councilor of Bato, representing Mayor Samuel V. Laynes, and Provincial Governor Joseph C. Cua, respectively. (PIA5/Catanduanes)

LUNGSOD NG NAGA, Camarines Sur (PIA) -- Isasagawa ng Samahan ng mga Guro sa Intelektuwalisasyon ng Filipino (SAGIF) ang Pandaigdigang Webinar-Worksyap sa Araling

Panlipunan sa Pebrero 25 hanggang 26 sa pamamagitan ng birtuwal na platform. Ang tema ngayong taon ay “Pagpopook ng Kasaysayan sa Hamon ng Teknolohiya at Globalisasyon.”

Kabilang sa mga tagapagsalita ang mga sumusunod na propesor at mananaliksik ng Ateneo De Manila, University of Santo Tomas, University of the Philippines, Philippine Normal University at De La Salle University: Dr. Antonio Contreras, Dr. Voltaire Villanueva, Dr. Joel Malabanan, Dr. Vicente Villan, Dr. Randy T. Nobleza, Dr. Melanie Turingan, Prof. Javier Leonardo Vitug Rugeria, Pro. Ambeth Ocampo, Dr. Vasil Victoria at Sir Francis Hassel Pedido.

Batay sa DepEd National Capital Region Advisory No. 189 s. 2022, ilan sa mga layunin ang matukoy at masugpo ang mga misinpormasyon, miskonsepsiyon at distorsiyon kaugnay ng kasaysayan ng bansa. Maaaring lumahok ang mga guro at/o edukador sa antas ng elementarya hanggang Senior High School na nagtuturo ng Agham Panlipunan.

Ayon sa SAGIF, “ang seminar ang kailangan para sa ERF teacher 1-7 hanggang iba pang ranggo. Tadtad ng bigatin at de-kalibreng ispiker, internasyunal ang antas, tatlong araw, kailangan sa equivalents record form requirement, may CPD points, memo mula sa DepEd (national, regional at division) mahusay na komite, matinding pasabog.” Tuwing Buwan ng Pebrero ipinagdiriwang ang Pambansang Buwan ng Sining, ngayong taon ay may temang “Ani ng Sining, Bunga ng Galing” sa bisa ng Presidential Proclamation No. 683 ang pagdedeklara ng Pebrero bilang buwan ng Pambansang Sining.
